CORAM: SMT.RANJANA DESAI &
D.B.BHOSALE, JJ.

DATED: 25TH JUNE, 2007.

P.C.:

1. The petitioner has prayed for quashing of the order dated 30.4.2007 passed by the Secretary, Home Department,Mantralay, Mumbai and the order dated 3.2.2007 passed by the Divisional Commissioner, Pune Division, Pune rejecting his application for parole. We have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor for the respondents. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner's mother is ill and she needs operation. The petitioner has tendered in this court a certificate dated 11.6.2007 issued by the Superintendent of Sasoon General Hospital, Pune, stating that the petitioner's mother needs surgery. On the last occasion, we have directed the learned APP to find out whether the petitioner's mother is ill and she needs surgery. The medical papers of the petitioner's mother have been tendered in this Court. It does appear that the petitioner's mother is ill.

2. In the circumstances, we direct that the petitioner Prakash Laxman Chavan be released on parole for a period of two weeks from the date of his release. The petitioner shall surrender to the prison after expiry of two weeks. While on parole the petitioner shall attend Yeroda Police Station, Pune on every alternate day between 4 pm to 8 pm. The petition is disposed of.
